Keynote Speaker

Andrew Pudewa

Andrew Pudewa, Director of the Institute for Excellence in Writing, is a teacher and homeschooling father of seven, lecturing and conducting workshops on the topics of English Composition, Early Childhood, and Music Education throughout North America.

He is a strong proponent of a classical approach with an emphasis on excellence in teaching. He teaches both at home in Atascadero, California, and around the continent, conducting workshops for students, teachers, and parents.

Andrew is a graduate of the Talent Education Institute in Matsumoto, Japan, and also holds a Certificate of Child Brain Development from the Institutes for the Achievement of Human Potential in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

With his wife Robin, he is a grateful convert to the Catholic faith, and especially enjoys working with Catholic homeschool families.

"The right and the duty of parents to educate their children are primordial and inalienable."

(CCC 2221)

"As Catholic homeschooling mothers and fathers, we need to do all we can to increase Sanctifying Grace in ourselves and in our children."

Dr. Mary Kay Clark

"Parents have the first responsibility for the education of their children. They bear witness to this responsibility first by creating a home where tenderness, forgiveness, respect, fidelity and disinterested service are the rule."
